LB 17, 117, 146, 85, 116

we are on now, we are about three weeks ahead of ourselves and there is no reason we can't stay there, unless somebody slows us up.

PRESIDENT: Senator Lewis, do you wish to rise to a point of privilege of the House?

SENATOR FRANK LEWIS: You took the words out of my mouth, Mr. Chairman. Mr. Chairman, the point I think that the Speaker has made and I certainly support him and I want to commend him on the excellent things he has done so far, we have taken this morning, fully twenty-five or thirty percent of the hour of time which we would have tomorrow. Senator Carsten's comments took up exactly five to six percent of the time we had this morning and so would mine. We are talking about meeting for an hour and fortunately next Monday we are going to go into all day sessions so that we can all talk longer. I have taken up three percent of the morning's time and that is my quota.

PRESIDENT: Senator Carsten, do you wish to rise to a point of order of the House?

SENATOR CARSTEN: I do, Mr. President, and I believe if Senator Lewis would have checked his watch he would have found I had not taken that much time myself. Thank you, sir.
